Two great pianists on two pianos, in a performance where the jazz and the classical duck and weave in a way that feels ‘just right’.

Performing together throughout Australia for over a decade to acclaim and standing ovations, Simon Tedeschi and Kevin Hunt return in 2017 with a new program of irresistible classical and jazz works, centered around Hunt’s own Painted Piano Suite, a moving work celebrating connections between indigenous youth and their country, and the joy and the gift of creating music within our communities.

Alongside music from Bach and Debussy to Ellington, Monk and Oscar Peterson, Tedeschi + Hunt also revisit Gershwin’s much-lauded masterpiece, Rhapsody in Blue in a phenomenal arrangement by these two maestros of the piano.
